TWISS GREEN

Achieving, Caring and Growing Together

Twiss Green Library

Next week is a very exciting week for Twiss Green! Not only is it the start of December, but we will be officially launching our new library on Thursday! Thanks to donations from our PTFA and the money raised during last year's World Book Day, we now have a lovely library space for the children to use. We are thrilled to welcome some very special visitors on the day, including Charlotte Nichols MP and Sean Perkins, author and illustrator. Sean will be spending time with the children throughout the day, reading stories and leading exciting writing workshops. Parents and carers are warmly invited to drop in after school on Thursday to take a peek at our wonderful new reading space and help us celebrate this exciting milestone. To mark the opening — and to celebrate our love of reading — we will also be running a Scholastic Book Fair throughout the week.

Bright Futures Week

During the week beginning 19th January, we will be holding a 'Bright Futures' week. Children will learn about different careers and what people do in our community, linking to our PSHE topic 'Dreams and Goals'.

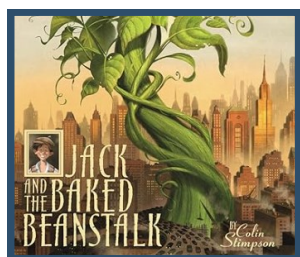

We would love your help to make the week truly inspiring. Would you, or someone you know—perhaps a friend or relative—be able to spare a little time to visit a class and talk about your career, skill, or hobby? The children love seeing equipment, uniforms, or demonstrations, and it really helps them think about their own future ambitions.

If you can help, please contact Mrs Kelly via the school office.

Respect, Resilience, Relationships

Spotlight On Year 2!

Our class has had a wonderfully busy and exciting week! We have been enjoying our Nativity rehearsals and are working hard to make our performance of 'Baarmy Bethlehem' extra special. In English, we've been writing persuasive letters to Jack, inspired by our Vehicle Text, Jack and the Baked Beanstalk, and the children have shown fantastic imagination and enthusiasm. We also had a brilliant time making Christmas decorations with our parents and carers—thank you to everyone who joined us and helped make the afternoon so festive and fun!

Christmas Fair

Our Christmas Fair is taking place next Friday, 5th December from 4pm. The PTFA have asked that each year group brings in the following items for the bottle tombola on Tuesday 2nd December:

Red or fizz: Y6

White or fizz: Y5

Rose or fizz: Y4

Beer or spirits: Y3

Beer or spirits: Y2

Beer or spirits: Y1

Non-alcoholic: Reception

Any: Nursery

Donations of tombola items for the toy stall would also be appreciated, this includes toys and teddies that are clean and in good condition—please check all puzzles and games have all pieces.
